

Match report 23rd July

Potters Bar Fillies Home to Brackley

Brackley won the toss and decided to Bat first

Annette Scott bowled the 1st over and as usual started with a maiden and also on her 2nd over.

The rest of the bowling was up to Potters Bar's high standard with some very good figures at the end. The fielders seemed a little sleepy and took a while to get going but once they did it was business as usual some good stops made by most and a cracking catch on the boundary by Ellie Fitzpatrick.

Then Brackley didn't stand a chance as the Potters Bar Fillies bowlers form was evident Tracey Sayers taking the next two wickets in 22nd and 23rd over with Kim Skinner Taking the remaining three in the 24th and 25th over, with the last ball of the innings LBW.

Bowling Figures

Annette Scott 0 wickets for 6 off 4 overs

Tracey Sayers 2 wickets for 22 off 5 overs

Kim Skinner 3 wickets for 22 off 5 overs

Brackley 140 for 7

2nd Innings

Potters Bar openers Debbie Palmer [captain] and Ellie Fitzpatrick confidently opened then a bit of disappointment as Debbie Palmer was run out on the 4th over.

Diane went in number 3 but was caught out scoring 3 runs.

Chris Field stayed in until the 17th over but was out LBW.

Tracey was 6th batswoman scoring 12 runs she was in with Ellie Fitzpatrick number 2-batswoman staying in the whole innings scoring her first league 50 runs and winning the match with a four.

Leaving the field it was all too much for her and there were tears of joy, all the Potters Bar Fillies were proud of her and gave her a cheer as she walked off.

Another win for the Fillies in their last league match.

Potters bar Fillies 144 for 4

Next season the Fillies are considering changing to a north London league, which would mean a lot less travelling.

There are now some friendlies to be played in preparation for their ladies tournament to be held at Potters bar Cricket Club on August 28th 2006, spectators welcome.

Then in October the Indoor League which The Fillies are hoping to win this year their third year of entering.

Captain Debbie Palmer said That anyone interested in joining The Fillies can come along on a Thursday after 6.30pm To Potters Bar Cricket Club in The Walk.
