

Unbeaten Potters Bar under 11's played Winchmore Hill last Thursday. Winchmore Hill won the toss and elected to field. Luke McGee and Harrison Palmer stepped up and smashed the opening pair for 49 off just 5 overs. Winchmore Hill started to look a little worried as the pair just continued crushing the bowlers, 5 overs later Bar were still cruising at about 10 an over. The pair both reached 50 shortly after 10 overs, 5 overs later Bar kept up the 10 an over run rate reaching 142 off 15 overs. It didn't end there, the pair reached 190 off the 20 overs and set the target. The pair only hit 13 fours in the innings and came off very hot after a long and tiring innings. Harrison Palmer finished on 69 and his partner Luke McGee finished on 74. The pair faced 60 balls each and set Winchmore Hill a very challenging total of 190 off only 120 balls. Potters Bar opened the bowling with two very talented young cricketers, Luke Jupp and James Ilott. The two Winchmore Hill opening batsmen put on only 2 before James Ilott destroyed the stumps with a vicious yorker. Off 5 overs Bar had restricted Winchmore Hill to just 24. Brad Ray then took two wickets with two superb length balls sending the bails flying. 4 wickets then fell on 24 runs including the two phenomenal run outs by James Ilott both hitting the stumps direct. the team were delighted and the continued to destroy the Winchmore Hill boys. Freddie Scutt too sent the bails flying for the fifth time in the innings and then Tim Richards took the final two wickets for no runs ending the innings for 64. Tim Richards took 2-3, Brad Ray took 2-12. A young 7 year old Charlie Scott bowled 2 overs for just 2 runs. Daniel Mackey and Dan Bateson also starred in the stunning bowling performance, using 8 bowlers for the game. Coach Paul Barker was very proud of the effort of the team and hopes the unbeaten run continues.
