

Potters Bar Under 11's continued their unbeaten record when they reached the Semi Final of the Middlesex East Area Cup on Friday.

They started the game with 4 debutantes: Luke Jupp, Patrick Scott, Charlie Scott and Daniel Bateson. Potters Bar won the toss and elected to put Hampstead into bat. Hampstead got 79 for 9 off their 20 overs. The pick of the bowlers were George Scott 4-12, Luke McGee 2-14 and Patrick Scott 2-17. With Potters Bar changing their batting order, the 2 openers were Luke McGee (Middlesex) and George Scott (Herts) set about punishing the bowling to all parts of the ground, the target was reached in 11 overs with George Scott finishing on 30* and Luke McGee 21*.

Under 11 Manager Paul Barker commented how well all his boys were performing and with this side which contains 3 Middlesex County Players, 1 Herts county Player and 1 Herts Sub-County player and the other 6 well capable of playing at a higher standard. He feels that they can progress to become Champions in the Middlesex League and Cup Competitions. The boys have shown their class by winning the last 3 games no wickets down.
